Here Are Four Scrappy Little Eastern High School Basketball Players As They Look In Action On the Floor

Here you see O'Connor, Eastern High's center, one of the best basketball prospects in the schools. He is also a football and baseball star.

On the top is Brayton Meyers, the aggressive captain and forward of Eastern's 1920 quint. Meyers also played star football last season. Below is seen Briggs, also a forward and a fine floor player.

HILLTOPPERS WILL PLAY TEN GAMES NEXT SEASON

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

Ten games are to be played by Bill Dudack's Georgetown varsity eleven next season. Coach Al Exendine will have his troubles, for the Blue and Gray must face such powerful teams as Detroit University, Navy, Georgia Tech, Washington and Lee, and Boston College.

The Hilltoppers will begin practice September 13, thus having a full two weeks before opening the season with Fred Walker's tough New York Aggies. A majority of those wearing the Blue and Gray last fall will be back for football next season and the prospects are unusually good.

The Virginia Techs, alone of those teams worth while on the 1919 schedule, will not be seen at the Hilltop next season. The Black-burgers, after building up a rivalry with Georgetown that attracted the largest crowd ever witnessing a V. P. I. game here, have broken off relations. When they return they will have their work to do all over again.

State Team Comes Back. North Carolina State, once known as the North Carolina Aggies, will be pleasantly welcomed after a brief absence from the Hilltop. This is the eleven that was so well coached by Jack Hegarty, the old Georgetown tackle, that it won from the Navy with a brilliant exhibition of forward passing.

The biggest of the six home games will be with Washington and Lee, on November 20. Judging by last year's attendance, the Hilltop won't be able to hold the fans who will flock to see this clash, especially if Georgetown succeeds in defeating Georgia Tech the week before.

Detroit University, easily one of the strongest elevens in the Middle West last season, losing only to Tufts, 7 to 3, will be a newcomer to Washington. The Detroiters will be seen here on October 23, which is a bad date to find both teams at their best, but not too early for a red-hot fight. Detroit defeated Georgetown, 16 to 13, last fall, the Hilltoppers' fumbling robbing them of a victory.

Will Be Well-Prepared. With four games behind them, the Hilltoppers should be well-prepared for Detroit. The New York Aggies were tough customers last fall and so was West Virginia Wesleyan. North Carolina State, too, can take considerable kicking before going down in defeat and St. John's, of Annapolis, is expected to be worthy of a place on the Georgetown list.

Beginning with the Fordham game at New York on October 30, the remainder of the season will find the Hilltoppers playing all their games abroad, except that with Washington and Lee, which will be played here. Following is the 1920 schedule:

September 25—New York Aggies; October 2—St. John's, of Annapolis; 9, North Carolina State; 16, West Virginia Wesleyan; 23, University of Detroit; 30, Fordham, at New York; November 6—Navy, at Annapolis; 13, Georgia Tech, at Atlanta, Ga.; 20, Washington & Lee; 27, Boston College, at Boston.

PURDUE MAY MANAGE. Hub Purdue, the "Gallatin Squash," who tolled for the Louisville Colonels a few seasons past, may branch out as a minor league pilot during the coming season. Walter Salm, also a former Colonel, now president of the Wichita Falls club of the Texas league, is in search of a manager and he is said to be negotiating with Purdue.

BILL SEEKING MONEY. "Derby Bill" Clymer, former manager of the Colonels and now leader of the Columbus Senators, is expected to arrive in Louisville within the next few days to look after his suit against the local club for back salary which he claims was due him during the 1918 season.

PAY HIGH FOR CRANE. CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—To land Sam Crane, the Indianapolis shortstop, Garry Herrmann has paid $5,000 in cash and he must send four players to the A. A. club. Crane is a brilliant fielder, but a weak batsman.

Three Live Tales Are Due This Week

Here's this week's program in The Washington Times' big baseball series:

Tomorrow—"When Snodgrass Lost a World's Title for the Giants," with complete box score. Monday—"Honus Wagner Plays His First Big League Game," with complete box score. Saturday—"Kid Gleason Breaks in as a Big Leaguer," with complete box score.

NAVY FIVE TOO STRONG FOR HATCHETTE TEAM

Gilman Makes All Points for His Team in Game at Annapolis With Middies.

George Washington University basketballers, cheered along and sung to by a large following of girl rooters, found the Navy all too clever on the floor at Annapolis yesterday, and were forced to come back with a 40 to 13 defeat.

The Navy has been coming along nicely lately and arrived yesterday with the biggest score of the campaign. The Hatchette guards were unequal to the task of stopping Burkholder, Byerly and Greber.

Byerly got five from the floor and Burkholder got four. Gilman, of the Hatchettes scored all of the points for his team, making four baskets and five free tosses.

HIGGINS LEAVES STATE. STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Jan. 18.—Robert A. Higgins, ranked as the greatest football end in the game last fall, and captain of the Penn State eleven, left here yesterday to accept the position as assistant to the recreation officer at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He has practically finished his course in commerce and finance, and will be awarded his college degree on February 2, being one of the 112 members of the special "war class" to be graduated at that time.

QUITE SOME BETTING. PINEBURST, N. C., Jan. 18.—Roy Barnhill, golf champion of the Advertising League, played in a match with A. Russell Brown, medalist and runner-up in the tournament. W. W. Lyon, of Seaside, and Don M. Parker, of Garden City. He got the better of all three, though he and his partner, Parker, lost on the foursome result to Brown and Lyon. More than $2,000 dollars changed hands on the various results of this affair.

CAN "SASS" UMP. CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Baseball players in the American Association will be permitted to argue in a "gentlemanly" manner with umpires next season, when they believe close decisions have been given against them, but the use of profanity will be stamped out, the club owners decided at their adjourned meeting yesterday.

GEORGETOWN GETS THREE ON ELEVEN

Bernier Picks Dudack, Maloney, and McQuade for All-South Atlantic Team.

Charles A. Bernier, the retiring football coach at V. P. I., has picked the following all-South Atlantic football eleven for 1919: Ends, Homewood, North Carolina State, and Daves, Washington, and Lee; tackles, Hall, V. P. I., and Bethel, W. and L. guards, Dudack, Georgetown, and Crisp, V. P. I.; center, Blount, North Carolina University; quarterback, Maloney, Georgetown; halfbacks, McQuade, Georgetown, and Leach, V. M. I.; fullback, Kuyk, Virginia.

"Dudack, of Georgetown," says Bernier, "is a guard of ability, and possesses great speed. Exendine used him to great advantage in running interference for McQuade's end runs, as he could mow an end down regularly by himself. As for frontal work, he can certainly raise them out of there! As V. P. I. and W. and L. players can attest."

"The team would be directed by the best general in the entire South, and this in my opinion is Maloney, of Georgetown. Maloney drives a team and gets a response from every unit. Keen in sizing up the weakness of an opponent, he hits that particular weak link with an abandon that spells rout for the opposition. Georgetown can well point to this man for winning a 6 to 0 victory from the Navy."

McQuade goes down as one of the best backs Georgetown has ever had, and that is saying a lot. Gilroy, Costello, and many others have made marks that are hard to reach, but McQuade has made a name for himself along with the above stars. He is not a dazzling side-stepper and dodger as the other two men, but he is a free agent. Some good minor league club will probably land him as manager."

MACK EXPLAINS STATUS. Connie Mack explained Terry Turner's status with the Athletics. "Terry's contract," he said, "was for the remainder of the season of 1919, and he was through here when the last game was played. We handed him his unconditional release, and he is now a free agent. Some good minor league club will probably land him as manager."

HAS LARGE RECORD. George Decker, coach of the Penn boxing team, holds a unique record in the ring sport. Since 1909, when he first took charge of boxing at the university, Decker has exchanged punches with 4,900 Penn students, three rounds each for a total of 12,000 rounds. This is said to be a record unequalled in boxing circles.

WILL ADD SPORTS. Gallaudet College will add wrestling and tennis to the sport program. Letters will be given the athletes, it is understood.

EASTERNERS ALWAYS IN CONTEST DESPITE ODDS

If you are interested in high school athletics and want to be sure of a scrappy engagement, pick out a game in which Eastern High School is playing and then go and watch. Eastern is short on numbers of boys, short on athletic facilities, but is gigantic when it comes to carrying the fight to the other teams. The Easterners win infrequently, they are almost outclassed when pitted against Central, Tech and the others, but they put up a tough fight in each instance. Last fall, in the first game of the football season, Tech ran up fifty-three points on Eastern. Did the Capitol Hill lads quit?

When the game had but four minutes to go Brown grabbed a forward pass intended for a Tech man and raced to the fifteen-yard line. Then Eastern jammed through on five plays and Prender went over for a touchdown.

Outclassed by Central last fall when most of the Central second string players were out of the game Eastern started a grand rush for the goal posts. Coach Metzler hurriedly put in the Central regulars, and Eastern marched right on through for a touchdown.

Last winter with Doc Battersby handling Eastern, the Capitol Hill lads actually defeated Central in the Business Gymnasium in a League game. It was a great victory for Eastern as Western was defeated earlier.

Eastern's so-called gymnasium is nothing more than a big room. The ceiling is so low that the baskets are put a foot lower than the regulation calls for, but the Easterners enter the game with a spirit of confidence that bodies ill for the opponent who thinks he has an easy game ahead.

Brayton Meyers is leading the Easterners on the floor this season. Briggs, Faber, McCloskey, O'Connor, and Prender are playing consistently well at a passing game, but are somewhat weak on shooting. The team is coming along rapidly, and unless Quade has made a name for himself Eastern is likely to spring a surprise. The Eastern lads always bear watching. They can be counted upon to put up a first-class scrap and fight generally wins in the end unless the odds are too great.

PARRISH DOES WELL. George Parrish, veteran center of the V. P. I. quint, earned thirty-nine points in the first game for the Tech lads, which they won from Daleville by 59 to 20.

RACE ON APRIL 3. Yale's varsity crew will meet the Quakers on the Schuylkill at Philadelphia, April 3.

MASON A DIRECTOR. Hi Mason, secretary of the Cartin-ais, has been promoted to the board of directors.

MANY BOXERS OUT. "Spike" Webb, boxing instructor at the navy, has 129 candidates out for the team.

TWO ATHLETES GONE. Ed and Barrell, of Maryland State College, have left the institution and will probably not be back. The athletes failed to return after the holidays.

London Streets Have Golf Match

So far as recorded, no golfer has ever tried to drive a ball through the streets of Washington. This feat, however, has been attempted in London, on a particularly damp and foggy morning. The player drove off at Piccadilly Circus, went via Lower Regent street, Pall Mall, the lower side of Trafalgar Square, Strand, Fleet street, Ludgate Hill, round to Queen Victoria street, "holing out" at the lamp at the Royal Exchange. No damage was done, the few policemen about smiled good humoredly—and the golfer won his wager.

PITTSBURGH IS AFTER LOUISVILLE BACKSTOP

The rumor hound is in motion. The latest is that the Pittsburgh Pirates are angling for a clever young backstop to help out Walter Schmidt, and that Manager George Gibson may close a deal with the Louisville Colonels for Bill Meyer. In exchange the Colonels are to get a catcher and infielder or outfielder. One Pittsburgh scribe has the Colonels putting in a week or two spring training with the Pirates at Hot Springs. Bill Neal says all of this talk is news to him.

WILL RUN ABROAD. Hannes Kolehmainen, who has been in this country since 1912, is going abroad next summer to represent Finland, his native country, in the Olympic games. He won three long distance championships in the Swedish Olympics in 1912 and has been victorious frequently in this country.

EPISCOPAL COMES HERE. Episcopal High comes here on Wednesday to play Business in the Stenographers' gymnasium. Business won handily at Episcopal in the first floor meeting.

FRIENDS WIN GAME. Friends Select School tossers, with Hoopes in form at center, defeated the Leesburg High team at Epiphany gym yesterday by 26 to 21.

NATIONAL GUARD STARTS UP ATHLETIC CAMPAIGN

Major C. Eugene Edwards in Charge of Basketball League Ready to Start.

Tomorrow night in the Fifth Regiment Armory, 472 L street northwest, the National Guard Basketball League, idle for several years, will be gotten under way by Major C. Eugene Edwards.

Three teams are playing in the circuit, which will run on until March 1. Major Edwards has donated a cup for the winning team. The schedule is as follows:

Monday, Jan. 19—Co. A vs. Co. C.
Monday, Jan. 20—Co. C vs. Co. B.
Wednesday, Jan. 22—Co. C vs. Co. A.
Monday, Feb. 2—Co. B vs. Co. A.
Wednesday, Feb. 4—Co. B vs. Co. C.
Monday, Feb. 9—Co. A vs. Co. B.
Wednesday, Feb. 11—Co. A vs. Co. C.

Monday, Feb. 16—Co. C vs. Co. B.
Wednesday, Feb. 18—Co. C vs. Co. A.
Monday, Feb. 23—Co. B vs. Co. A.
Wednesday, Feb. 25—Co. B vs. Co. C.
Monday, March 1—Co. A vs. Co. B.
Several first-class players are said to be listed with the teams. It is expected that the National Guard will follow other athletic lines just as soon as interest can be aroused.

JACK LEARY MAY LEAD MEMPHIS BASEBALLERS

Word comes from Indianapolis that Jack Leary, all-around handy man of the Indians, is likely to be the new manager of the Memphis club, of the Southern Association.

Leary has been with Indianapolis for several years, being obtained from the St. Louis Browns. He entered the service in 1918 and rose to the rank of ensign before the war ended.

Tex Covington played first for the Indians last season and Leary was used behind the bat.

GOLFERS GO SOUTH. A. R. MacKenzie, Charles H. Orme, Otto J. DeMott, Eugene Gott, Harry Kauffman, J. T. Hendricks, and Meyer Cohen have gone South to Augusta, Ga., for their winter golf jaunt. The "Columbia clubmen" make the trip yearly.

CORNELL WINS GAME. Cornell defeated Dartmouth by a score of 26 to 22 in an intercollegiate basketball game at Hanover, N. H., last night.

RESERVES WIN GAME. Gallaudet Reserves took the Bolling Field Aviators into camp by a score of 55 to 17 last night, winning all the way.

RAY FISHER SIGNS. CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—Ray Fisher, the Reds' pitcher, has signed his 1920 contract.

AYOYSIUS LADS HALTED BY YANKEE BASKETERS

Aloysius Club players found the long "Y" floor and the Yankee basketball team too much for them in the first game of the series of three for the District independent title.

Tuesday night, at Ryan gymnasium, the Delaware College quint visits the Brooklanders. It will be quite a feather in Shipley's cap if he gets away with either game.

Delaware College has had an unusual team for two years. The Newark lads have come through the campaign this year without a defeat. In meeting C. U. tomorrow night the visitors will be on their mettle, as they defeated the Brooklanders before the holidays in Newark.

Tuesday night the Hilltoppers will give the visitors a rattling good battle. Georgetown has been undefeated so far this season, and has represented an almost invincible defense.

RAIN HOLDS UP MATCHES IN DAVIS CUP TOURNEY

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 18.—Rain here this afternoon caused a postponement of the second day's play in the Davis Cup tennis matches. It had been planned to hold the doubles contest, but a heavy downpour deadened the turf courts and made play impossible.

With the doubles scheduled for Monday the international tournament will carry over until Tuesday, when the two final singles matches will be staged. At present England and Australia are tied with one victory each. The winner of three out of five matches will be declared the 1920 holder of the trophy now in possession of Australasia.

WILL OPPOSE CHANGES. West Side Tennis Club officials who are asking that the national tournament be staged in New York over a period of five years, are meeting with objections from Philadelphia men headed by W. T. Tilden. The West Side men also oppose the new scoring system recently promulgated by the N. L. T. A. officials.

MEEHAN MAY GET IT. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 18.—John F. (Chick) Meehan will probably be named successor to "Buck" O'Neill as football coach at Syracuse University, with Bill Horr and Dr. Harry Kallit as his assistants. Meehan played football four years here and was first assistant to O'Neill.

ALOYSIUS TO PLAY. Tech High has scheduled the Aloysius club players for tomorrow night. The game will be staged in the Aloysius gymnasium.

DELAWARE TO ARRIVE IN TOWN FOR HOT BATTLES

Burton Shipley's Crack Five Will Draw Well Against C. U. and G. U.

There isn't a single doubt in the minds of followers of basketball here that the week will be one of first-class exhibitions. Tomorrow night, at Catholic University, Burton Shipley's Delaware College quint visits the Brooklanders.

Tuesday night, at Ryan gymnasium, the Delaware College lads take on Georgetown's crack five. It will be quite a feather in Shipley's cap if he gets away with either game.

Delaware College has had an unusual team for two years. The Newark lads have come through the campaign this year without a defeat. In meeting C. U. tomorrow night the visitors will be on their mettle, as they defeated the Brooklanders before the holidays in Newark.

ROXEY ROACH WON'T BE WITH COLUMBUS OUTFIT

Roxey Roach, who jumped the Louisville Colonels in 1918 and joined the ranks of the Steel leaguers, may not be a member of the Columbus Senators next season. Roxey was manager of the Senators part of the past season. With Clymer at the helm of the club, it is said that Roxey's chances for the returning are slim. The two at one time the greatest of pals, have parted friendship, it is said. The parting dates back to 1918, when Roxey left Clymer in the cold.

HAS THREE GAMES. Western will play three games this week in meeting the McDonough School in Baltimore tomorrow, Alexandria High on Wednesday, and Tech on Friday.

WANTS TWO GAMES. Gonzaga High tossers after dropping yesterday's game in Baltimore to the Mt. St. Jo lads by 27 to 19, want games for Tuesday and Thursday of this week.
